Affordable and convenient, Bethel Bishop Chappelle Memorial Apartments (BBCMA) has something for everyone. Stretching across vast greens, this 200-unit complex is host to a multi-family community. The two-level brick buildings boast spacious units with eat-in kitchens and linen closets. Each apartment also has a covered porch outside its sliding glass doors for residents to sit and relax. Children can play on the greens or in the complex's playground. For a small refundable fee, residents can use the community room for special events. Located off Ripplemeyer Avenue, BBCMA is minutes to the city bus line, Edens Shopping Plaza and close to downtown. Its ideal location makes it a popular choice for many families. Take advantage of the other social and supportive services that the TNDC staff provides, such as informational workshops and speakers from various community based and governmental organizations. Residents can also take advantage of job training classes at Oak Hill's P.O.W.E.R Center.

Qualifications

Bethel Bishop Chappelle Memorial Apartments is a multi-family HUD-subsidized Section 8 community. A resident's rent is based upon a calculated analysis of one's income and expenses. Applicants must complete a satisfactory application process, including a criminal background check and credit report. There is no application fee required, and the security deposit is the same as your calculated rent amount. Bethel Bishop offers a 12-month lease for the first year then month to month thereafter.

"Bethel Bishop fits my needs right now. The rent is very affordable so I can save for the future."
